Speaker Biography

Monica Cooke

Monica Cooke has more than 40 years of experience in the field of behavioral health & substance abuse in clinical, administrative, and executive risk and quality positions. As a seasoned professional, she founded Quality Plus Solutions, LLC in 2006 to provide organizational behavioral health and workplace violence assessments as well as risk and quality support for behavioral health, acute care, practice settings, and other continuums of care. She provides legal nurse expert services, and as a Certified Psychiatric/Mental Health Nurse, Monica worked part-time in a substance use and mental health setting until 2020. Monica has served in several leadership positions with local risk and quality societies, as well as many years of service to the American Society for Healthcare Risk Management, currently serving on the Nominating Committee. Monica provides educational presentations at both the national and state levels and is recognized as an expert in the field of behavioral health risk and healthcare workplace violence mitigation. Little known facts (until now), Monica has been doing stained glass work for 35 years and rides her 400cc Piaggio Vespa when it is under 80 degrees!

Jared Green

Jared Green is a partner with Goodell DeVries. He is an experienced courtroom attorney who concentrates his practice on the defense of health care providers and institutions in cases of alleged medical negligence. As a former prosecutor, Jared has experience in criminal matters, and represents organizations in matters involving workplace violence. In these matters, he conducts internal investigations; supports and advises clients regarding workplace violence and during law enforcement investigations and criminal prosecutions; and represents clients in parallel civil, criminal, and licensing matters.

Andrea N. Johnson

As Senior Director for Risk & Safety (Kaiser), Andrea Johnson has direct oversight of accreditation, certification, and licensing of regulated areas, provider credentialing and enrollment, risk management, integrated safety (which includes patient safety, workplace safety, environmental health & safety) and performance improvement. Andrea has over 25 years of extensive experience in a broad range of leadership roles and health care related activities including strategic planning, regulatory compliance, business and clinical operations, quality, claims management, and risk mitigation. She, along with her security co-chair, developed and manages the threat management program at Kaiser Permanente – Mid Atlantic States.
